OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Dated Kohima, the 20th Dec, 2017.

No. AR-7/8/86 (Pt)

Procedure for filling up of vacancies on Deputation regular absorption of Deputationists.

In supersession of all earlier instructions on the matter, including this Department’s Office Memorandum of even number dated 21st Aug, 2004, the Governor of Nagaland is pleased to revise the procedure for filling up vacancy on deputation and absorption as follows:

1. No deputation shall be allowed against a post which is to be filled up by direct recruitment or by promotion as per the provisions of the relevant Service Rules.

2. Deputation shall be permitted only against those posts which can be filled up through deputation as per specific provision in the Service Rules. Deputation shall also be permitted to fill up those isolated or stand alone posts filling up of which has not been provided for in the Service Rules. In case such a post falls within the purview of NPSC, prior clearance of P&AR Department and NPSC is mandatory before initiating the process of filling up. In case such a post falls outside the purview of NPSC, prior clearance of P&AR Department is mandatory.

3. The deputation post shall be eligible to be filled up by a person who is in the same or equivalent grade or in the next lower grade. No level jumping beyond the next lower grade shall be permitted for any deputation post.

4. Such deputation vacancy shall be advertised through Department’s website and office circulars clearly indicating the specific qualifications, experience, other eligibility conditions required and the closing date for receipt of applications.

5. The selection of the candidates shall be done by the Screening Board chaired by the Secretary of the Department with representative of P&AR Department and representative of the concerned Directorate and an expert in the relevant discipline.

6. The period of deputation shall be 3 (three) years except in those cases where a longer period of tenure is prescribed in the Service Rules. The extension beyond the period laid down can be granted for one year at a time with prior approval of the lending Department, P&AR Department and NPSC. The maximum period of deputation shall not exceed 5 (five) years.

7. An officer on deputation can be promoted by the borrowing Department if his junior is promoted in the parent cadre under the next below rule after obtaining the approval of the cadre controlling authority, NPSC and the P&AR Department.
8. On the date of completion of the deputation period, an officer shall be reverted automatically to the parent Department even if no release order has been issued unless an order extending the deputation period has been issued before the expiry of the deputation period.

9. Any proposal to absorb a candidate must have the consent of the person concerned and the lending Department. Further, the borrowing Department shall obtain the clearance of the NPSC, P&AR and approval of the Cabinet.

10. The seniority of a person so absorbed in the deputation post shall be counted from the date of such absorption only (i.e., from the date of Cabinet approval).
