Under Secretary to the Govt. of Nagaland

OFFICE MEMORANDUMDated Kohima, the 19th of January, 2018

No. AR -1 / 8 / 88

OFFICIATING PROMOTIONS – MATTER THEREOF

1. Standing instructions of the State Government issued in Office Memorandum No. AR-8/1/75 dated 29-8-1986 and re-iterated vide Office Memorandum AR-1/8/88 dated 10-11-2006 stipulate that the promotion of a Government employee should be taken up only on regular-basis through the Departmental Promotion Committee.
2. A dispensation, though, is available whereby in terms of Office Memorandum No. AR-3/Gen-174/2007 (Pt) dated 17-12-2014, officiating-promotions can be carried out provided prior clearance of the P & AR Department is obtained.
3. Cases, however, have come to light whereby departments have not adhered to the directives and provisions contained vide the Office Memoranda under reference and have continued with the practice of conferring officiating-promotions.
4. This has been viewed with serious concern and with a view to put an end to such officiating-promotions, the following measures shall be taken:
 - (i) Officiating-promotions shall not be effected by any department under any circumstances, save with the prior clearance of the P & AR Department, which must be quoted in the officiating-promotion order.
 - (ii) Proposals referred to the P & AR Department by a department for clearance to facilitate officiating-promotions, other than those in pursuance of Office Memorandum No. AR-3/Gen-174/2007 (Pt) dated 17-12-2014, should be accompanied by compelling justification.
 - (iii) Cases of officiating-promotion carried out, if any, without the clearance of the P & AR Department, shall be dealt with as under:
 - a/ Pay-slip shall not be issued by the office of the Principal Accountant General, Nagaland, or the Directorate of Treasuries & Accounts, Kohima, or offices of Senior Treasury Officers, as the case may be.
 - b/ The Departmental Promotion Committee shall not entertain any proposal for regularization of the officiating-promotions.
 - c/ Disciplinary action against the erring Administrative Head / Head of Department shall be invariably instituted.
 - (iv) Officiating-promotions undertaken with the clearance of the P & AR Department shall be submitted to the Departmental Promotion Committee within a period of 03 (three) months for subsequent regularization.

- (v) Promotion to the next higher grade shall not be considered unless officiating-promotion in the immediate lower post is first regularized by the Departmental Promotion Committee.
- (vi) The office of the Principal Accountant General, Nagaland, shall not process pension-cases of those retirees whose officiating-promotions to the posts held immediately prior to retirement from service were sanctioned without the previous clearance of the P & AR Department and had not been regularized by the Departmental Promotion Committee.
- (vii) The officiating-promotion of an employee, duly undertaken with the prior clearance of the P & AR Department, shall be effective only from the date of taking over charge by the employee concerned and it shall not be effected retrospectively.

5. All officiating-promotions carried out without the clearance of the P & AR Department, prior to the issue of this Office Memorandum, are to be immediately placed before the Departmental Promotion Committee for regularization after obtaining the ex post facto clearance of the P & AR Department, failing which the Principal Accountant General, Nagaland, and other designated authorities shall not renew or issue any fresh 'pay slips' against such cases.

 - (b) In prescribing the other allowances payable to and such other conditions of service of Upa-Lokayukta regard shall be had to the similar allowances payable to, and such other conditions of service of a Judge of High Court.
- (4) The administrative expenses of the office of the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta including all salaries and pensions payable to or of persons serving in that office, shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund of the State.

Section-8: Matters which may be investigated by Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Lokayukta may investigate any action which is taken, by or with the general or specific approval of-
- (a) The Chief Minister or a Minister or a Secretary;
 - (b) A member of the State Legislature;
 - (c) Vice-chancellor or Registrar of a University;
 - (d) The Chairman and Vice-Chairman (by whatever name called) or a member of an Authority, Board, or a Committee, a Statutory or non Statutory Body or a Corporation established by or under any law of the State Legislature.
 - (e) Any other public servant.
- (2) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may, if he thinks fit, investigate an action taken by or with the general or specific approval of a public functionary, if it is referred to him by the State Government.
- (3) The Lokayukta may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, investigate any action which may be investigated by an Upa-Lokayukta whether or not a complaint has been made to the Lokayukta in respect of such action.

Section-9: Matters not subject to Investigation:

- (1) Except as hereinafter provided, the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall not conduct any investigation under this Act in the cases of a complaint involving a grievance in respect of any action:
- (a) If such action relates to any matter specified in the Second Schedule; or
 - (b) If the complainant has or had any remedy by way of a proceeding before any forum or other authority;
- Provided that nothing in clause (b) shall prevent the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta from conducting an investigation, if the Lokayukta or, as the case may be, the Upa-Lokayukta, is satisfied that such person could not or cannot, for sufficient cause, have recourse to such remedy.
- (2) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall not investigate:
- (a) Any action in respect of which a formal and public inquiry has been ordered under the Public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850 by the State Government or Government of India;
 - (b) Any action in respect of a matter which has been referred for inquiry under the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952 by the State Government or Government of India.

- (3) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall not investigate-
- (a) Any complaint involving a grievance made after the expiry of a period of twelve months limitation from the date on which the action complained against becomes known to the complainant.
 - (b) Any complaint involving an allegation made after the expiry of five years from the date on which the action or conduct complained against is alleged to have taken place.
- Provided that the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta in respect of grievance or allegation, as the case may be, may entertain a complaint made after the expiry of the said period if the complainant shows sufficient cause for not making the complaint within the said period.
- (4) In the case of any complaint involving a grievance, nothing in this Act shall be construed as empowering the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta to question any administrative action involving the exercise of a discretion except where he is satisfied that the elements involved in the exercise of the discretion are absent to such extent that the discretion can prima facie be regarded, as having been improperly exercised.

Section-10 : Provision relating complaints.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a complaint may be made under this Act, to the Lokayukta; in the case of an allegation, by any person, and in the case of a grievance, by a person aggrieved:

Provided that where the person aggrieved is dead or, is for any reason, unable to act for himself, the complaint may be made or continued by his legal representative or by any other person who is authorized by him in writing in this behalf.

- (2) Every complaint shall be made in such form and in such manner and shall be accompanied by such affidavit as may be prescribed.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, any letter written to the Lokayukta by a person in police custody or in jail or in any asylum or other place from insane persons, shall be forwarded to the Lokayukta unopened and without delay by the police officer or other person in-charge of such jail, asylum or other place and the Lokayukta may, if satisfied that it is necessary so to do, treat such letter as a complaint made in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

Section-11 : Provisions for holding preliminary inquiry.

- (1) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, on receipt of a complaint or in case initiated on his own motion, may, before proceeding to investigate such complaint or case, make such preliminary inquiry or direct any other person so authorized to make such preliminary inquiry as he deems fit. If on such preliminary inquiry, he finds that there exists no such ground he shall record a finding to that effect and thereupon the matter shall be closed and the complainant shall be informed accordingly.
- (2) The procedure for verification in respect of a complaint under sub-section (1) shall be such as the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta deems appropriate in the circumstances of the case and he may, if he deems it necessary so to do, call for the comments of the public functionary concerned.

Section-12: Procedure in respect of Investigation.

- (1) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall, in each case before it, decide the procedure to be followed for making the enquiry and in so doing ensure that the principles of natural justice are satisfied.
- (2) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may in his discretion, at any stage, refuse to inquire or cease to inquire into any complaint involving a grievance or allegation, if in his opinion-
 - (a) The complaint is frivolous or vexatious, or is not made in good faith; or
 - (b) There are no sufficient grounds for investigating, or as the case may be, for continuing the investigation; or
 - (c) Other remedies are available to the complainant and in the circumstances of the case, it would be more appropriate for the complainant to avail of such remedies.

Provided that the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall record his reasons thereof and communicate the gist of the order to the complainant and the public functionary concerned.

- (3) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, shall have power to review his order or decision to restore any matter closed at any stage, and to grant or refuse permission to the complainant to withdraw the complaint;

Provided that the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall record his reasons in writing therefore.

Section-13: Issue of Search Warrants.

- (1) Where in consequence of information in his/her possession, the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta-
 - (a) Has reason to believe that any person;
 - (i) To whom a summon or notice under this Act has been issued or likely to be issued, may not produce or cause to be produced, or may tamper with any property, document or thing which will be necessary or useful for or relevant to any inquiry or other proceedings to be conducted by him;
 - (ii) Is in possession of any money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing represents either wholly or partly income or property which has not been disclosed to the authorities as required under any law or rule for the time being in force; or
 - (b) Considers that the purposes of any inquiry or other proceedings to be conducted by him will be served by a general search or inspection, he may by a search warrant authorize any officer subordinate to him or any officer of the institution of Lokayukta or any person or agency referred to in Section 17 or any Commissioner appointed by him under clause (e) of sub-section (2) of Section 14, to conduct a search or carry out an inspection in accordance therewith and in particular to:
 - (i) Enter and search any building or place where he has reason to suspect that such property, document, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing is kept.
 - (ii) Search any person who is reasonably suspected of concealing about his person any article for which search should be made;
 - (iii) Break open the lock of any door, box, locker, safe, almirah or other receptacle for exercising the powers conferred by item (1), where the keys thereof are not available;
 - (iv) Seize or seal any such property, document, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing found as a result of such search;
 - (v) Place marks of identification on any property or document or make or cause to be made extracts or copies there from; or

- (vi) Make a note or an inventory of any such property, document, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing.
- (2) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 relating to search and seizure shall mutatis mutandis apply to searches and seizures under section (1).
- (3) A warrant issued under sub-section (1), for all purposes, be deemed to be warrant issued by a Court under Section 93 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Section-14: Evidence.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section for the purpose of any investigation, including the preliminary inquiry, under this Act, the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may require any public functionary or any person or authority who, in his opinion, is able to furnish information or procedure documents relevant to the investigation or inquiry, to furnish any such information or produce any such document and such public functionary, person or authority so required shall be deemed to be legally bound to furnish such information within the meaning of Section 176 and 177 of the Indian Penal Code.
- (2) For the purpose of any such investigation, including preliminary inquiry, the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:
 - (a) Summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examine him on oath;

- (5) If the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, is satisfied with the action taken or proposed to be taken on his recommendation referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (3), he shall close the case under information to the complainant if any, the public functionary and the competent authority concerned: but where he is not so satisfied and if he considers that the case so deserves, he may make a special report upon the case to the Governor and also inform the competent authority concerned and the complainant, if any.
- (6) The Lokayukta shall present annually a consolidated report on the administration of this Act to the Governor.
- (7) On the receipt of a special report under sub-section (5) or the Annual Report under sub-section (6), the Governor shall cause a copy thereof together with an explanatory memorandum to be laid before the State Legislature within four months from the date of the receipt of the report by the Governor or till the Legislature meets next, whichever is later.
- (8) If the Annual Report is not laid in the State Legislature within the time provided in sub-section (7), the Lokayukta shall be free to make the Report public in the manner he may choose.
- (9) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, may at his discretion, make available, from time to time, the substance of cases closed or otherwise disposed of by him, which may appear to him to be of a general, public, academic or professional interest in such manner and to such persons as he may deem appropriate.

Section-26: Initiation of Prosecution.

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions contained in section 197 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 or section 19 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, the Lokayukta shall have the power to grant sanction for prosecution for any matter pending before it or for enquiry or investigation into any complaint against any public servant.
- (2) No prosecution under sub-section (1) shall be initiated against any public servant accused of any offence alleged to have been committed by him while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duty, and no court shall take cognizance of such offence except with the previous approval of the Lokayukta.
- (3) Nothing contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall apply in respect of the persons holding office in pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution and in respect of which a procedure for removal of such person has been prescribed therein.
- (4) The provisions contained in sub-sections (1) to (3) shall be without prejudice to the generality of the provisions contained in Article 311 and Article 320(3)(c) of the Constitution of India.

Section-27: Staff of the office of the Lokayukta.

- (1) The Lokayukta, after necessary administrative, financial and other approvals of the State Government in this behalf, may appoint officers and other employees to assist the Lokayukta and Upa-Lokayukta in the discharge of their functions under this Act.

- (2) The categories of officers and employees who may be appointed under sub-section(1), their salaries, allowances and other conditions of service and the administrative powers of the Lokayukta shall be such as may be prescribed by the State Government.
- (3) The State Government in consultation with Lokayukta shall provide for the adequate number and categories of staff of the investigating agency to assist the Lokayukta and Upa-Lokayukta in the discharge of their functions under this Act.
- (4) The services of the officers and employees other than those appointed by the Lokayukta under sub-section (1) shall not be taken back before the expiry of the period of deputation by the State Government without prior concurrence of the Lokayukta.
- (5) In the discharge of their functions under this Act, the officers and employees, referred to in sub-section (1) shall be subject to the exclusive administrative control and directions of the Lokayukta.

Section-28: Conferment of additional function on Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta.

- (1) The Governor may, by notification and after consultation with the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, confer such additional functions in relation to the redressal of grievances and eradication of corruption as may be specified in the notification.
- (2) The Governor may, by order in writing and with the concurrence of the Lokayukta, confer on the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta such powers of supervisory nature over agencies, authorities or officers set up, constituted or appointed by the State Government for the eradication of corruption as may be specified in the order.
- (3) When any additional functions are conferred on the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta under sub-section (1), the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta shall exercise the same powers and discharge the same functions as he would in the case of any investigation made on the complaint involving an allegation, and the provisions of this Acts shall apply accordingly.

Section-29: Power to exclude complaints against certain classes of public functionaries.

- (1) The State Government may, on the recommendation of the Lokayukta and on being satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest so to do, exclude by notification, complaints involving an allegation, or grievance or both against persons belonging to any class of public functionaries specified in the notification, from the jurisdiction of the Lokayukta, or as the case may be, Upa-Lokayukta.
- (2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is issued, before the State Legislature and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is laid or the session immediately following, the House agree in making any modification that the notification shall be annulled and notify such decision, the notification shall, from the date of publication of such decision, have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be;

Provided that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done by virtue of the notification.

Section-30: Power to Delegate.

The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may, by general or special order in writing, direct that any power conferred or duties imposed on him by or under this Act (except the power to make report to the appropriate authority, or the power to punish for contempt or to order prosecution of a public servant under section 26 may also be exercised or discharged by such of the officers, employees, agencies referred to in Section 17, 18 or 27 as may be specified in the order.

Section-31: Public Servants to Submit Property Statement.

- (1) Every public servant, shall, within three months after the commencement of this Act and thereafter before the 30th June of every year, submit to the Lokayukta in the prescribed form a statement of his assets and liabilities held by him or by any person on his behalf.
- (2) If no such statement is received by the Lokayukta from any such public functionary within the time specified in sub-section (1), the Lokayukta shall make a report to that effect to the competent authority and send a copy of the report to the public servant concerned. If within two months of such report the public servant concerned does not submit the statement of his assets and liabilities, the Lokayukta may publish or cause to be published the names of such public functionary in two newspapers having wide circulation in the State.

Section-32: Power of the State Government to make Rules.

- (1) The State Government may, in consultation with the Lokayukta, by notification, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provision of this Act.
- (2) Every rule made under this section shall immediately after it is made, be laid, before each House of the State Legislature, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both House agree in making any modification in the rule, or both Houses agree in the annulment of the rule, the rule shall, from the date on which such modification or annulment is notified, or be of no effect, as the case may be.

Provided that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Section-33: Power of Lokayukta to make Regulation.

- (1) The Lokayukta may, by notification, make such regulations, as he may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the matter, namely;
 - (a) Normal working hours of the office of the Lokayukta and holding of sittings of the Lokayukta and Upa-Lokayukta outside normal working hours;
 - (b) Holding of sitting of the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta at places other than the place of ordinary sittings.
 - (c) Procedure which may be followed by the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta for conducting proceedings including inquiry and investigation;
 - (d) Forms in which complaints may be made and the affidavits which may accompany such complaint and the fees if any which may be charged in respect thereof;
