Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Banking Regulation (Amendment) Ordinance, 2017.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Insertion of new sections 35AA and 35AB.

2. In the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, after section 35A, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:— 10 of 1949.

Power of Central Government to authorise Reserve Bank for issuing directions to banking companies to initiate insolvency resolution process.

‘35AA. The Central Government may by order authorise the Reserve Bank to issue directions to any banking company or banking companies to initiate insolvency resolution process in respect of a default, under the provisions of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. 31 of 2016.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, “default” has the same meaning assigned to it in clause (12) of section 3 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. 31 of 2016.

Power of Reserve Bank to issue directions in respect of stressed assets.

35AB. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 35A, the Reserve Bank may, from time to time, issue directions to the banking companies for resolution of stressed assets.

(2) The Reserve Bank may specify one or more authorities or committees with such members as the Reserve Bank may appoint or approve for appointment to advise banking companies on resolution of stressed assets.’

ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA

Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi-110001.

Dated the 10th July, 2017
19 Ashadha, 1939 (Saka)

NOTIFICATION

No. 479/2017: - Whereas, the Election Commission of India, in connection with conduct of Presidential Election, 2017, has notified under Rule 7 of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Rules, 1974, vide its Notification No. 479/2017(2) dated 14th June, 2017, the Place of polling and Group of electors who will be entitled to vote at those places of poll; and

Whereas, in the Note to the said Notification, a limit of 10 days before the date of poll has been fixed, before which any Member of Parliament/Member of Legislative Assembly, on account of exigency for special circumstances, has to intimate if he desires to vote at place of polling other than the one notified for his/her group, by directly applying to the Election Commission of India in the prescribed format; and

Whereas, the Commission has decided to liberalise the above said stipulation of 10 days' prior intimation in case of extreme urgent situation;

Now, therefore, the Commission has decided that the requests for the aforesaid purpose, received in the Commission, even after 10 days before the date of poll, if any, may be considered by the Commission based upon the circumstances of individual case and allow such Member of Parliament/Member of Legislative Assembly to cast vote at place of polling other than the one notified for his/her group, if there is sufficient time available for making necessary arrangements in this regard.

No. 28 Kohima Thursday, June 29, 2017

Ashadha 8, 1939 (Saka)

NOTIFICATION

MED/FW-4/8/9/2005/734

Dated Kohima the 29th June 2017

In the interest of the general public and to ensure early diagnosis and case management, reduce Dengue transmission, address the problems of emergency and spread of disease in newer geographical areas, the Government of Nagaland is pleased to order that healthcare providers shall notify every Dengue case to the Chief Medical Officer of the District every week (daily during transmission period).

For the purpose of case definition, a dengue case is defined as follows:

• Probable DF/DHF:

A case compatible with clinical description of Dengue Fever "An acute febrile illness of 2-7 days duration with two or more of the following manifestations:

Headache, retro-orbital pain, myalgia, arthralgia, rash, haemorrhagic manifestations."

OR

"Non-ELISA based NS1 antigen/IgM positive"

(A positive test by RDT will be considered as probable due to poor sensitivity and specificity of currently available RDTs.)

• Confirmed Dengue Fever:

A case compatible with the clinical description of Dengue fever with at least one of the following:

- Demonstration of Dengue virus antigen in serum samples by NS1 ELISA.
- Demonstration of IgM antibody titre by ELISA positive in single serum sample.
- Detection of viral nucleic acid by polymerase chain reaction (PCR).
- Isolation of the Dengue virus (Virus culture +VE) from serum, plasma, leucocytes.
- IgG seroconversion in paired sera after 2 weeks with Four fold increase of IgG titre.

For the purpose of this notification, healthcare providers will include clinical establishments run or managed by the Government (including local authorities), private or NGO sectors and/or individual practitioners under Clinical establishments (Registration & Regulation) Act, 2010.

The doctors in Government Health institutions and the registered medical private practitioners of the private hospitals/ clinics are required to immediately inform the office of the District Health Authority of concerned district, if a suspected case of Dengue is reported at their health institution.

The blood samples of all the Dengue suspected cases have to be sent at the Sentinel Surveillance Hospital (SSH), to be tested by ELISA technique. A patient can be declared positive for Dengue only on the basis of ELISA technique of testing and not by RDT. A patient can be declared as probable case for Dengue only on the basis of RDT technique of testing by using NS1 or IgM (Not IgG). The information of the positive case of the Dengue should be sent to the office of the concerned Chief Medical Officer immediately after the diagnosis.
