The RIIN database will be updated with latest photographs and other details, every 5 years.
21. There will be a complete ban on issue of fresh Indigenous Inhabitants certificates and in case there is anyone who is left out from the RIIN, he/she will need to file an application before Home Commissioner who will get the matter verified and take necessary action for updating the RIIN if needed.

The Nagaland Protection of Interests of Depositors (in Financial Establishments) Act, 2014 (Act No. 9 of 2015) sought to check the activities of Financial Establishments engaged in the business of receiving deposits under various schemes from public and safeguard the interests of the depositors.

There have been developments in the Act in other States over the period, necessitating amendments in the Principal Act. The Nagaland Protection of Interests of Depositors (in Financial Establishments) (Amendment) Bill, 2018 will bring into effect a comprehensive mechanism to check and regulate the activities of Financial Establishments in the State.

The proposed Bill seeks to give effect to the above objects.
