6. AGE:

(i) The age of a candidate for admission to the competitive examination shall not be less than 21 years and not more than 30 years as on the first day of the year of recruitment. The upper age limit is relaxable in each case by 5 years in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes of Nagaland or in accordance with the general or special orders issued by the Government from time to time. Further, age concession for serving Government employees will be allowed, the equal number of years they are in service subject to a maximum of 5 years.

(ii) The age recorded in the Matriculation/HSLC or equivalent examination shall ordinarily be accepted as final. Age of a candidate recorded in the matriculation or equivalent examination shall be final and no change/alteration thereof other than the one already entered in the said certificate shall be accepted.

7. ACADEMIC QUALIFICATION:
The minimum qualification for direct recruitment to the Service will be a Bachelor’s Degree from a University recognized by the Association of Indian Universities.

3. PHYSICAL FITNESS:

(a) A candidate shall be of sound health, both mentally and physically, and be free from organic defects, or bodily infirmity that will interfere with the efficient performance of his or her duty.
(b) A candidate for direct recruitment shall be required to undergo medical examination and must be certified fit by a Medical Board, or such other medical authority as may be prescribed by the Government, before appointment to the service.

9. DISQUALIFICATION:

(a) No person who has more than one spouse living shall be eligible for appointment to any post under these Rules.

Provided that if any person after joining the Service under these Rules marries again when the first spouse is living and divorce or separation has not taken place, he or she shall be immediately discharged from the Service unless the Government is satisfied that such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such person.

(b) Candidates who are already in Government service or in the service under Statutory Bodies shall not be appointed unless Release Certificate or No Objection Certificate from the Government or the employer is furnished.

(c) No person shall be qualified for appointment to the Service unless he or she is a citizen of India.

(d) No person shall be appointed to the Service whose character and antecedents are adversely reported upon by a competent authority.

(e) No person who attempts to enlist support for his candidature directly or indirectly through any recommendation either written or oral shall be appointed to the Service.

10. METHOD OF RECRUITMENT:

(a) The method of recruitment to the posts in the Schedule-I shall be as follows:

(i) By direct recruitment

a. All direct recruitment to the service shall be made through the Nagaland Public Service Commission.

b. An examination or interview or both for selection to the post(s) shall be held at such time in places as may be prescribed in the notice issued by the Commission for the purpose.

c. The Commission shall prepare a list of all candidates who have qualified in the examination or interview or both in order of merit which shall be determined in accordance with aggregate marks obtained by each candidate and if two or more candidates obtain equal marks, the Commission shall arrange them in order of their age. The Commission shall forward the names in order of merit up to the number of vacancy/vacancies reported for direct recruitment.

d. The inclusion of candidate’s name in the list of successful candidates shall not confer right to him or her for appointment unless the Government is satisfied after such inquiry as may be considered necessary that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the service.

e. Waiting list not exceeding 25% of the vacancies advertised shall be maintained by the Commission in respect of examination conducted by them. The waiting list shall remain valid for 1(one) year from the date of declaration of result by the Commission.

(ii) By promotion

By promotion, on the basis of Merit-cum-Seniority in the manner and process articulated in Office Memorandum No. AR-12/3/89 dated 24/06/96.

11. APPOINTMENT TO THE SERVICE:

(a) All appointment to the Service shall be made by the Appointing Authority and no such appointment shall be made except after selection by the Commission.

(b) A person shall join duty within 30 days from the date of issue of the order of appointment in the case of direct recruitment; failing which, and unless Appointing Authority extends the period, which shall not normally exceed one month, the appointment shall be cancelled.

(c) Reservation of direct-recruitment vacancies for the backward tribes of the State as well as for the physically handicapped shall be in accordance with the existing policy of the Government.

Provided that in the case of reservation for Backward Tribes, if no candidate is available from a particular backward tribe whose turn has come on the roster, the vacancy shall not be filled by a candidate belonging to any other tribes.

Provided further that if no candidate from a particular Backward Tribe is available for filling the vacancy earmarked for that backward tribe in the roster, such vacancy shall be treated as “backlog vacancy” and the process for filling each such “backlog vacancy” shall be carried out as under:
(i) The “backlog vacancy” shall be announced in the subsequent recruitment along with other vacancies (called the ‘current vacancies’);

(ii) The ‘current vacancies’ shall be treated as one group and the ‘backlog vacancies’ as a separate group.

(iii) Such ‘backlog vacancies’, earmarked earlier for a particular Backward tribe, shall be carried forward in the ensuing recruitment till the same are ultimately filled up by candidates from that particular Backward Tribe only.

12. POSTING:

A member of the service appointed to any post(s) shall be liable to serve anywhere in Nagaland.

13. PROBATION:

(a) Person appointed directly to the service under Rule 10 (a) shall be put on probation for a period of 02 (two) years;

Provided that the period of probation in respect of any probationer may, for good and sufficient reasons, be extended by the Government by a period not exceeding 01 (one) year.

(b) The Appointing Authority may, by serving 01 (one) month’s notice in writing, dispense with the service of a probationer if, during the period of probation or the extended period thereof, the probationer is considered to be unfit for regular appointment.

(c) The probationer shall not be entitled to any compensation in the event of service being dispensed with under sub-rule (b) above.

(d) During the period of probation or extended period thereof, a probationer may be required to undergo such courses of training and to pass such examinations as the competent authority may prescribe in the interest of public service.

(e) The period of probation completed successfully shall be counted in full as qualifying service for all purpose.

14. CONFIRMATION:

(a) When a person on probation completes the period of probation successfully to the satisfaction of the Appointing Authority, he or she shall be eligible for confirmation, provided that he or she is considered fit for confirmation in consideration of all other aspects and conditions as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time.

(b) Confirmation in service will be done only once in the service of an employee, i.e., in the entry grade of the cadre.

15. SENIORITY:

a. Direct Recruitment:

When direct recruitment is made through the Commission or approved Selection Committee, the relative seniority of direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for appointment on the recommendation of the Commission/Committee.

b. Recruitment by promotion:

The relative seniority of persons promoted to various grades shall be determined in order of their selection for such promotion. This shall apply to cases where such promotion is made through selection by the Committee and the seniority shall be in the order in which they are recommended for promotion.

c. Relative seniority of promotees and direct recruits:

If in a calendar year, recruitment is done partly by departmental promotion and partly by direct recruitment, the departmental promotees shall be ranked senior to the direct recruits of the same grade.

16. DEPARTMENTAL PROMOTION COMMITTEE:

(i) For promotion against posts within the purview of the Commission, there shall be a Departmental Promotion Committee consisting of the following members:

1. Chairman, NPSC – Chairman
2. One member from NPSC to be nominated by the Chairman, NPSC – Member
3. Chief Secretary or one senior Commissioner & Secretary to be nominated by the Chief Secretary – Member
4. Commissioner & Secretary / Secretary (P & AR) – Member
5. Secretary of the Department – Member
6. Head of the Department – Member Secretary
(a) Provided where promotion is to be made to the post of Head of Department, the Secretary of the Administrative Department shall act as the Member Secretary and the Head of Department shall not be included in the Committee.

(b) The proceedings of the Committee shall be valid if attended by three members or more members including one each among Sl. No. (1) & (2), Sl. No. (3) & (4) and Sl. No. (5) & (6).

(c) Where any vacancy/vacancies arise(s) to be filled up by promotion, the Head of the Department shall furnish the following particulars together with his comments, if any, to the Government:

i. Final and undisputed Seniority List of the cadre from which promotion is to be given. The list should contain at least thrice as many names as the number of existing vacancies available.

ii. Dossiers of the persons concerned;

iii. Annual Performance Appraisal Reports for the 05(five) consecutive proceeding years;

iv. Vigilance Clearance;

v. Integrity Certificate;

vi. Service Rule.

vii. List of eligible persons;

viii. Year wise break-up of vacancies;

ix. Order of confirmation in service.

(d) On receipt of the particulars under sub-rule(c) above, the Government shall furnish such particulars with comments, if any, indicating number of vacancy/vacancies and other matters as may be necessary, to the Commission.

(e) If the Commission consider it necessary to make any change(s) in the list received from the Government the Commission shall inform the Govt. of the change(s), and after taking into account the comments, if any, of the Govt. may approved the list finally with such modifications, if any, as may be in their opinion, be just and proper.

(f) The Committee when called upon by the Commission shall meet and prepare a list of officer(s) equal to the number of vacancy/vacancies in order of preference to be filled in by promotion.
(g) In every case, where a junior member of the service is selected in preference to his or her senior in that service, the Committee shall record in writing the reasons thereof for such supersession.

(h) The select list shall be valid for 1 (one) year from the date of its approval by the Commission.

All vacancies arising during the period intended to be filled by promotion shall be filled up from that list. The selection shall be based on merit-cum-seniority with reference to the following aspects of the candidates:

(i) Personality and character;
(ii) Tact, energy and general intelligence;
(iii) Integrity;
(iv) Performance;

No. LAW/ACT/3-49/2020: The Nagaland Goods and Services Tax (Amendment) Act, 2019 (Act No. 3 of 2020) duly assented by the Hon’ble Governor of Nagaland on 12.03.2020 is published herewith for general information.

Dated Kohima, the 13th March, 2020.

Sd/- IMTIAKUM
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of Nagaland

PART-V
NOTIFICATION

Further to amend the Nagaland Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (Act No. 4 of 2017)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Nagaland in the Seventy-first year of the Republic of India as follows:-

Short title and commencement

1. (1) This Act may be called the Nagaland Goods and Services Tax (Amendment) Act, 2019.

(2) Save as otherwise provided, the provisions of this Act shall come into force on such date as the Nagaland Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Provided that different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act and any reference in any such provision to the commencement of this Act shall be construed as a reference to the coming into force of that provision.

Amendment of section 2

2. (1) In Section 2 of the Nagaland Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred as Nagaland Goods and Services Tax Act), in clause (4), after the words “the Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling”, the words “the National Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling”, shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 10

3. (I) In section 10 of the Nagaland Goods and Services Tax Act,—
(a) in sub-section (1), after the second proviso, the following Explanation shall be inserted, namely:—

"Explanation.— For the purposes of second proviso, the value of exempt supply of services provided by way of extending deposits, loans or advances in so far as the consideration is represented by way of interest or discount shall not be taken into account for determining the value of turnover in the State";
(b) in sub-section (2),—

(i) in clause (d), the word “and” occurring at the end shall be omitted;

(ii) in clause (e), for the word “Council:”, the words “Council; and” shall be substituted;

(iii) after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(f) he is neither a casual taxable person nor a non-resident taxable person:”;

(c) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, but subject to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 9, a registered person, not eligible to opt to pay tax under sub-section (1) and sub-section (2), whose aggregate turnover in the preceding financial year did not exceed fifty lakh rupees, may opt to pay, in lieu of the tax payable by him under sub-section (1) of section 9, an amount of tax calculated at such rate as may be prescribed, but not exceeding three per cent of the turnover in the State, if he is not—

(a) engaged in making any supply of goods or services which are not leviable to tax under this Act;

(b) engaged in making any inter-State outward supplies of goods or services;

(c) engaged in making any supply of goods or services through an electronic commerce operator who is required to collect tax at source under section 52;
(d) a manufacturer of such goods or supplier of such services as may be notified by the Government on the recommendations of the Council; and

(e) a casual taxable person or a non-resident taxable person:

Provided that where more than one registered person are having the same Permanent Account Number issued under the Income-tax Act, 1961, the registered person shall not be eligible to opt for the scheme under this sub-section unless all such registered persons opt to pay tax under this sub-section.”;

(d) in sub-section (3), after the words, brackets and figure “under sub-section (1)” at both the places where they occur, the words, brackets, figure and letter “or sub-section (2A), as the case may be,” shall be inserted.

(e) in sub-section (4), after the words, brackets and figure “of sub-section (1)”, the words, brackets, figure and letter “or, as the case may be, sub-section (2A)” shall be inserted.

(f) in sub-section (5), after the words, brackets and figure “under sub-section (1)”, the words, brackets, figure and letter “or sub-section (2A), as the case may be,” shall be inserted.

(g) after sub-section (5), the following Explanations shall be inserted, namely:

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of computing aggregate turnover of a person for determining his eligibility to pay tax under this section, the expression “aggregate turnover” shall include the value of supplies made by such person from the 1st day of April of a financial year upto the date when he becomes liable for registration under this Act, but shall not include the value of exempt supply of services provided by way of extending deposits, loans or advances in so far as the consideration is represented by way of interest or discount.

Explanation 2.—For the purposes of determining the tax payable by a person under this section, the expression “turnover in State” shall not include the value of following supplies, namely:
(i) supplies from the first day of April of a financial year up to the date when such person becomes liable for registration under this Act; and

(ii) exempt supply of services provided by way of extending deposits, loans or advances in so far as the consideration is represented by way of interest or discount.’.

In section 22 of the Nagaland Goods and Services Tax Act, in sub-section (1), after the second proviso, the following shall be inserted, namely:

“Provided also that the Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, enhance the aggregate turnover from twenty lakh rupees to such amount not exceeding forty lakh rupees in case of supplier who is engaged exclusively in the supply of goods, subject to such conditions and limitations, as may be notified.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, a person shall be considered to be engaged exclusively in the supply of goods even if he is engaged in exempt supply of services provided by way of extending deposits, loans or advances in so far as the consideration is represented by way of interest or discount.”.

In section 25 of the Nagaland Goods and Services Tax Act, after sub-section (6), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:

“(6A) Every registered person shall undergo authentication, or furnish proof of possession of Aadhaar number, in such form and manner and within such time as may be prescribed:

Provided that if an Aadhaar number is not assigned to the registered person, such person shall be offered alternate and viable means of identification in such manner as Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, prescribe:

Provided further that in case of failure to undergo authentication or furnish proof of possession of Aadhaar number or furnish alternate and viable means of identification, registration allotted to such person shall be deemed to be invalid and the other provisions of this Act shall apply as if such person does not have a registration.

(6B) On and from the date of notification, every individual shall, in order to be eligible for grant of registration, undergo authentication, or furnish proof of possession of Aadhaar number, in such manner as the Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, specify in the said notification:

Provided that if an Aadhaar number is not assigned to an individual, such individual shall be offered alternate and viable means of identification in such manner as the Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, specify in the said notification.

(6C) On and from the date of notification, every person, other than an individual, shall, in order to be eligible for grant of registration, undergo authentication, or furnish proof of possession of Aadhaar number of the Karta, Managing Director, whole time Director, such number of partners, Members of Managing Committee of Association, Board of Trustees, authorised representative, authorized signatory and such other class of persons, in such manner, as the Government may, on the recommendation of the Council, specify in the said notification:

Provided that where such person or class of persons have not been assigned the Aadhaar Number, such person or class of persons shall be offered alternate and viable means of identification in such manner as the Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, specify in the said notification.

(6D) The provisions of sub-section (6A) or sub-section (6B) or sub-section (6C) shall not apply to such person or class of persons, or part of the State, as the Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, specify by notification.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression “Aadhaar number” shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in clause (a) of section 2 of the Aadhaar (Targeted Delivery of Financial and Other Subsidies, Benefits and Services) Act, 2016.”
6. Insertion of new section 31A
